

History Department
Barnard College
Columbia University
Senior Seminar Fall 2018

Senior Thesis Information Form

Name -----

E-Mail-----

The information solicited below will be used to place you in a section with an instructor most likely to provide you with informed assistance, and with seminar mates working on topics bearing some relationship to your own. Be as specific as you can, even though we understand that your current thinking is subject to change.

Placements will be announced on Canvas/Courseworks II by the end of the week.

1. Proposed Thesis Topic:

2. Proposed Region of Study:

Africa Asia Europe Latin America Middle East United States Comparative
Other/Specify

3. Proposed Chronological Period:

Ancient -- to 500 AD

Medieval -- to 1500

Early Modern -- to 1800

Modern -- 19th century

Modern -- 20th century

4. Proposed Topical Area/Approach:

Political history

Economic history

Diplomatic history/International relations

Urban history

Social history (labor/gender/class/race/ethnicity)

Environmental

Quantitative/Spatial History
History of Science/Technology
Biography
Other/Specify

5. Contemplated Primary Sources:

Government/public documents
Newspapers
Family papers/manuscripts
Oral Histories and Interviews
Published/edited primary documents
Materials in languages other than English -- Specify
Other – Specify

6. Language Proficiency:

7. Previous courses taken (and with whom) that you expect to be relevant to your proposed topic and research:

8. Other information you think relevant to the process of your section assignment: